Leidy/Leidichs/Leydig/Leidig Burial Ground
3143 Keyser Road at Nieffer Road, Obelilsk,
Upper Frederick Township, Montgomery County, PA
on former Samuel Faust farm

“This burial ground is located near the southeast corner of Upper Frederick township, Montgomery County, about one mile south-east from Keelor’s Church at Obelisk. It is not on a public road but is located in a field over the crest of a hill about 2/10 of a mile off a paved road called ‘Keyser Road’ on the Montgomery County map. It is reached over a grass-driveway along the edge of a field. . . .

“In addition to the burials listed in this article, there is another printed list of epitaphs copied by George S. Nyce and printed in [The] Perkiomen Region, Past and Present, [Vol. 1, No. 2, Henry S. Dotterer, Editor] in [October] 1894, pages 8, 29, and 54. This lists only about 50 gravestones, whereas there are today still approximately 100 stones with readable inscriptions. . . .

“The numbers on the list that follows correspond to the numbers used in the earlier lists . . . . Row one begins at the westernmost corner and the listings are going from left to right.” [Leydig-Leidig Burial Ground compiled by Raymond E. Hollenbach, Royersford, PA, September 1969.] Gravestone inscription below translated from this source.
